

Section 7: Personal Comments Essay

On the following page, you have space to write (or paste) an essay about yourself and your aspirations. Please include information that you believe an admissions committee would want to know about you (see the autobiographical packet instructions for further details). Your essay is important, so make sure to seek out appropriate feedback from faculty members, Writing Center staff, professionals in the field, or prehealth advisors.

Optional Information

The following information is not required. It is intended to help the Committee learn more about you as an applicant and prepare a more personal letter of evaluation.

Marital Status	Name of Spouse

Names and ages of children:

Countries of Residence: (highly recommended that you fill the residence information--It is very helpful in drafting a letter.)

Country	City	Dates	School, if enrolled

If you are a member of one of the following racial/ethnic minorities underrepresented in the health professions, please check the group which applies to you.

<input type="checkbox"/> Black American	<input type="checkbox"/> Mexican American or Chicano	<input type="checkbox"/> Native American/Inuit	<input type="checkbox"/> Puerto Rican (Mainland)
---	--	--	--

Include any pertinent information that does not appear in the rest of your autobiographical packet.

ENTERING
