

Seawulf Projects Review Template

V7.28.2006 by YFD

Section I: Information Provided by Applicants

1. Names of PI and Co-PIs
2. Departments
3. Title of the Project
4. Area to categorize (math, physics, chemistry, biology, CS, medicine, climate, etc)\
5. Names of students and other members involved
6. Any funding of the project by federal, state, or campus agencies?

7. Expected starting point
8. Expected length of the project
9. Estimated number of CPUs
10. Estimated RAM per CPU
11. Estimated total storage

Section II: Review Comments

12. Intrinsic value to the area of science
13. Potential contribution
  - a) for developing algorithms, parallel computing, computer science
  - b) for achieving the value of the current computer platform
  - c) for attracting more interests (people and projects) in computational science
  - d) for introducing more advanced computer systems to campus
14. Educational value
15. Potential for more external funding
16. Other comments
17. Review summary

Section III: Suggested Offer of Resources

Section IV: Reviewer(s)